

Love is in everything

Love is your smile
That illuminates the day

Love is a teardrop
I kiss tenderly away

Love is a child
In my nurturing embrace

And it's the compassion
I read on your face

Love is our warm hands
Giving and sharing

It is a sweet whisper
To say I am caring

Love is unbound
Love is romantic

It is affectionate
It is passionately tantric

Love is your ear
It listens with understanding

And it's our forgiveness
For the pain to be ending

Love is the joy
Loyal and truthful

Respecting and trusting
Gracefully youthful

Faith and freedom
Making us One

Love is
